WELCOME VISITORS - We are glad you are sharing this time of worship with us on this Lord's Day. If you are not an active church member in this community, we encourage you to make this a day of decision for Christ and his Church. Our Session will receive you on the profession of your faith in Christ, by restatement of your faith, or by the transfer of your membership. Please speak with the minister or one of the ushers following the service if you wish to inquire about membership.

If you failed to make your contribution to PATH last Sunday, you may still do so today or next Sunday, the 17th. Envelopes are in the pew racks.

Today is also our usual collection day for Samaritans Together's Operation Hunger. If you would like to make a contribution, please mark your checks for "Operation Hunger."

Would you like to help other people with their tax returns? We have received in the church office information and brochures on the VITA tax assistance program. Please call the office for more information.

On Thursday, January 4, 1990, the Rev. Joan SalmonCampbell, moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, will visit Columbia Seminary. She will preach in the chapel at noon and preside over the Moderator's Luncheon with ministers participating in the January Seminars and Columbia faculty members. On January 3 at 7:30 p.m., the seminary will host a "Hymn Festival" at Decatur Presbyterian Church to celebrate the new Presbyterian hymnal. The public is invited to join the seminar participants for this event as well as for Ms. SalmonCampbell's worship service on January 4.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1989

For four Tuesday evenings in January, Columbia Seminary will hold its Lay School of Bible and Theology. Four classes will be offered. They are "Studies in the Book of Revelation," taught by Dr. Davison Philips; "The Book of Jeremiah," taught by Dr. Walter Brueggemann; "Spiritual Growth for Maturing Christians," taught by Dr. Robert Ramey; and "How Our History Shapes Our Faith," taught by Dr. Benton Kline. Classes will be held on the seminary campus January 2, 9, 16, and 30, 1990, from 7:30 until 9:30 p.m. Registration fee is $25. We have registration forms available in the church office.

Christmas is a special time for giving. This Christmas as you think about those you will be giving to, consider giving some of your time to Clayton County Habitat for Humanity. Work continues each Saturday beginning at 8:30 a.m. at the site in Forest Park. If your Saturdays are occupied, call the Habitat office at 477-2367, and they will make arrangements for you to work during the week on the day of your choice.
