Welcome to this service of worship with Philadelphia Presbyterian Church. We invite you to share with us in our ministry, our mission, our fellowship, and our growth. If you are interested in sharing in the blessings of God and the work of His Kingdom with us, or if you would like to know more about the abundant life that is ours through Jesus Christ, please speak with the Minister or one of the ushers following the service.

We are especially pleased to welcome home our own Jeff Hutcheson for the Thanksgiving holidays. Jeff currently is serving an intern pastorate at the Light Street Presbyterian Church in Baltimore, Maryland. He will meet with our Session this morning following our Congregational Meeting, in preparation for his meeting with the Presbytery of Greater Atlanta's Candidates Committee. Upon completion of his internship he will return to Columbia Theological Seminary to finish his seminary training.

The Georgia Tech Chorale and Brass Ensemble along with the Voices of Grace will present "Thanks Be to Thee," works of Handel, Beethoven, Schubert, Brahms, Walter and Rutter, this evening at 7:00 p.m. at the Grace Methodist Church of Atlanta.

The congregation is cordially invited to attend. John Westlund is a member of the Tech Chorale.

Don't forget the Congregational Meeting following the worship service this morning!

If you did not remember to turn in your Time and Talent Sheets to the church this past Sunday, you may do so any time before December 3 by giving them to either Margaret McCall or the church office.

Are you stitching Chrismons for our children? If so, please make arrangements to turn in those you have already completed to either Diane Banke or the church office by next Sunday.

(Those not completed may be turned in later for use next year.) The Chrismon Service will be Sunday evening, December 3, at 7:00 p.m.!

The Pairs and Spares Class will be studying "Be Dynamic... A Study of the Book of Acts," by Warren Wiersbe, over the next few months. You are all invited to attend.
