People: has become the keystone of the corner.

HOLY WEEK ACTIVITIES

Lent isn't just a Catholic thing it's a Christian thing in which Protestants participate. You never need to worry about Presbyterians becoming Catholic because we are too headstrong to obey a Bishop, much less a Pope. However, you may have noticed Protestant churches adapting, not necessarily adopting, many of the traditions and rituals of the early church. PPC has already been (re)introduced to Ash Wednesday and Lent. There are two more traditions that will round out our Lenten observance for the year.

Stations of the Cross –

Easter or Resurrection Sunday has no meaning without Good Friday. The value in the Stations of the Cross lies in a simple twofold enacted confession. First, life is sometimes dark, painful and brings endings. That reality will not go away even for the Son of God. Second, God does some of God's best work in the darkness as we persist in the journey.

In this sense, we need to remember that the Stations of the Cross are primarily a context for prayer and reflection. As we open our hearts and minds to God in this symbolic journey, we are led to communion with God that draws us closer to his love for us. It also allows us to identify with Jesus as he identifies with us. We are drawn to contemplate, not only the suffering and pain of our own journey mirrored in his, but as we follow the Christ we are compelled to identify with those around us who suffering during their own journey.

Fasting -

The 40 days of fasting during Lent corresponds to the 40 days that Jesus spent fasting in the wilderness before he began his public ministry.

Regrettably most of us are no more successful in keeping the 40 day Lenten fast than we were in keeping those long forgotten resolutions we made at the first of the year. This is not necessarily a bad thing if it has served to made us more aware of our human limitations and need for God.

I've been praying that God will help me choose and keep a fast during Holy Week so that my prayer life and spiritual discernment might become stronger. My prayer was answered when a visiting friend touted the spiritual and physical benefits of a fast she'd been on for almost a month.

I will be starting her fast Monday and invite you to consider what God might ask you to give up...or take on for Holy Week in order to enhance your relationship with him. If you have health issues please check with your physician before giving up any type of food.

Campus Crusade for Christ offers one of the most comprehensive yet easy to understand article on fasting at <http://www.cru.org/train-and-grow/devotional-life/personal-guide-to-fasting.4.html>

May you be able to look back on Lent/Easter 2015 and honestly say it was one of the most memorable and meaningful "seasons" in your Christian journey.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS (Read Responsively)

If our songs of praise are a habit that has lost the enthusiasm of its first love; Lord have mercy.
Lord have mercy.

If our songs of praise are hampered by a multitude of small doubts and fears; Christ have mercy.
Christ have mercy.

If our songs of praise have become the hollow shells of a faith that has withered; Lord have mercy.
Lord have mercy.

God of stringent light and relentless mercy, please reveal to us the condition of our true selves. Expose the ugliness we have ignored, affirm the beauty that has not been surrendered, forgive the sins for which we have made pathetic excuses, and heal the faith which, although lame, has not surrendered to the world's pessimism.

Encourage us to bear the pain of complete self-honesty, and to embrace the joy of rehabilitation which comes to us through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. Then let us live boldly to the praise of your Holy Name.

ALL: Amen!

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God the Father, the Almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven; by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

The Church has widely used the Nicene Creed since the fifth century. The Council at Nicaea adopted an early form of the creed in AD 325, although the basic present form emerged from the Council of Constantinople in AD 381. It was officially adopted by the Council of Chalcedon in AD 451. It is the only creed accepted by all three major branches of Christendom: Protestant, Roman Catholic, and Eastern Orthodox
