Lord, we do not come to you this morning with our religion in one hand and our morality in the other. We do not come insisting that we deserve to be blessed by you. We do not come thinking our way is the “only” way, the “right” way to worship you. We come to you as children asking you to fill us with Your Spirit. Asking for more of Jesus residing in our hearts, taking control of our lives, showing us your will and your way. Holy Spirit, you are welcome here.

PPC is blessed this morning to have children offer their best to the glory of God through dance. Liturgical dance has as its purpose the deepening and focusing of the worship experience; it is not merely ornamental or decorative. There are many biblical and historical references to dance; Miriam and King David danced; Psalms 149 and 150 instruct us to praise God with dance; Romans 12:1 and 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 bless the body as a worthy instrument. The word rejoice in Aramaic (the language Jesus spoke) is said by some to mean “to jump or dance.” The original meaning of choir referred to a group of dancers. Stanza meant that the dancers stood still while the soloist danced; the chorus was when the group danced. The Directory for Worship in the Book of Order also lists dance as one of several “creative expressions” that can be “appropriate for worship”. umcdiscipleship.org/resources/the-work-of-liturgical-dancers; 2015-2017 PCUSA Book of Order

Prayer Litany

(inspired by Galatians 5: 22-26)

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.
Lord, we pray that the fruit of Your Spirit may grow in us.

Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires.
Lord, help us to destroy any passions or desires that turn us away from you.
Transform our sinful natures and teach us Your way.

Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit.
Lord, walk ahead of us and help us to follow you.
Lord, walk beside us and hold us up in difficult times.
Lord, walk behind us and protect us.

Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other.
Lord, help us not to think too much of ourselves.
Lord, help us not to make those around us angry.
Lord, help us to rejoice with our sisters and brothers in their joys, and keep us from envy. In the name of Jesus, Amen.
