A Palm Sunday Invocation

This is your day, holy God. Every day belongs to you. We would empty ourselves before you so there will be room for your entrance into our minds, and hearts. Our times are in your hands. This precious gift of life is ours, in trust, from you. We give thanks, for your steadfast love endures forever. That love, expressed in the life of Jesus, dared to challenge those centers of power that lived by other standards. We come to declare that love today. Reign among us, we pray. Amen.

To let you know of a few things that are going on, or not going on:

- The dates on the April calendar that are scheduled for this week are all postponed until the self-quarantine is lifted.
- There will be no meeting for worship again this week but please tune into Facebook at 11:00am on Sunday for worship.

We would like to thank our Philadelphia family who are being faithful to continue to give your tithes and offerings to the church during this difficult time. The mission and the ministry of Philadelphia Presbyterian Church does not cease but in fact increases all the more during times of national emergencies. You may mail your gifts to the Church at 351 Morrow Road, Forest Park, GA 30297. You may also place your offering in the locked mailbox outside of the Fellowship Hall.

Bill & Corine Bridges called in today to say hello. They were married here at Philadelphia, by Rev. Jack Westlund, after worship on Sunday, March 29, 1987. It was Kite Flying Sunday so that made it very memorable. They use the PPC cookbook often and have fond memories of you all.

Stay in and stay safe. We are here if you need us.
