Call to Worship

from Psalm 111

We lift up my eyes to the hills—from where will our help come?

Our help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber.

He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade at your right hand.

The sun shall not strike us by day nor the moon by night.

The Lord will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life.

The Lord will keep our going out and our coming in forever.

Let us worship the Lord.

Call to Confession

In spite of our best efforts to live faithfully, we fall short of what God intends for us.

In humility and truth, let us confess our sin.

Prayer of Confession

God of grace, for our failure to love others as you have loved us, forgive us.

For wasting your gifts and hoarding our goods, forgive us.

For losing heart and abandoning hope, forgive us.

For pursuing our own desires rather than yours, forgive us.

For turning away from your demanding truth toward easier options, forgive us.

For all the ways we turn from you, forgive us.

We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

My friends, God promises to forgive us, to put our sin out of God's own mind and heart. God gives us not just a second chance but a new beginning. Believe the good news of the gospel: through faith in Christ Jesus, our sin is forgiven.

Thanks be to God.

Call for the Offering

In the spirit of gratitude to God, let us offer to God our gifts and praise.

* Affirmation of Faith

from A Brief Statement of Faith

In life and death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve. With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.
