THE CROSSROADS

Dear Philadelphia Presbyterian Church Family,

Here is an experience at Smyrna Presbyterian Church that I have shared with churches over the past number of years....

During the worship service this past Sunday, I noticed that a summer crowd had gathered. The worshippers in the front middle of the Sanctuary have been obviously vacationing in July for there were a number of conspicuous sparse pews in that area. That made it much easier to spot one of our regular worshippers who often sits down front. It was Ashley Smith. I noticed she was not sitting alone on her pew this past Sunday. She had someone with her and for a moment I thought it was her new little sister.

While I was beginning to marvel at her parent’s decision to give her such responsibility, I got a little better view and noticed that it was not her baby sister after all but a special friend she had brought to worship. She was holding her gently as if she did have her sister in her arms and seemed to be cherishing her friend’s presence. It made my heart glad to see that in the midst of the empty pews at least one of our families brought a friend to church, never mind that her little friend was her baby doll!

I wonder what would happen if as the summer begins that we would imitate Ashley’s example of bringing a cherished friend to church. Why don’t we look around to see what friend or friends God might be putting into our lives that we might invite and bring to worship? They may be someone in your family, or someone you work with or a neighbor. Whoever they may be, bring a cherished friend or relative to church this Sunday and every Sunday if you can. You’ll be glad you did and so will we all!

Joy and peace to you all,
Jack

“Man of the Year” -- Fred Rohrbach

Presented on Father’s Day, June 16, 2019

For many years the Women of our Church have been honoring our Women who have shown dedication to God by service to our Church, with Life Memberships to PW. As we have delighted in celebrating these Special Women among us, several of us have wished we could also similarly honor the Special Men of our Church. Over the years there have been many men who have shown their love of God by serving our Church and the members of our Church in many ways.

So -- our Presbyterian Women are starting a new tradition! Each Father’s Day we will honor a Man of the Year!

This year’s Man of the Year is an Elder of our Church and a person who is always there when you need him. And when you need something, he is one of the first people you go to for help, especially for property, maintenance, grounds, and Church photography. For many years he has held work days to take care of innumerable tasks that needed to be done at the Church. There is no way to list all the things he takes care of for our Church. Plus he is one of the few who knows how to correctly fold the Communion Cloth. He shows his dedication to God in all the ways he serves our Church and in the wonderful way he lives his life.

This year’s Man of the Year is

Fred Rohrbach

The Man of the Year Honor comes with a certificate and a $50 gift card for a choice of restaurants including Longhorn, etc.

Fred, Thank You for ALL You Do for Our Church!!! We All Really Appreciate You!!!

And now we can look forward to next year’s Man of the Year on Father’s Day.
