THE CROSSROADS

It's almost Pentecost, which is later than normal this year due to a late Easter. Once we celebrate the day when the Holy Spirit came to found the church, we will move into "ordinary" time for the summer and fall. Paraments will be green, which is fitting since we will be living through the fertile time of fruits and vegetables. I'm looking forward to fresh tomatoes, green beans, and squash. And watermelon – real watermelon that is sweet. It will be hot, but I plan to chill out as much as possible. It's been a hard winter for the Simpsons, and I'm still grieving the inability of Jim to come home from multiple medical events. So I will be adjusting to being alone every evening and continual worry about his care. I appreciate your prayers and support for us at this time, and I pray that God watches over us all when we face life-changing health crises.

I will watch the birds at the feeder, check the cardinals' nest to see if the eggs have hatched, and feed the hungry koi in the fish pond, as I try to remember each day the blessings God continues to send my way. I hope you too can find blessings in each and every day during this summer season.

Yours in Christ,
Jeanne

At our PW Retreat on Saturday, May 17th we enjoyed a wonderful study of God's grace. Rev. Jeanne led us to a greater understanding of the meaning of His grace and of the beautiful hymn Amazing Grace. Thank You, Jeanne!
And a special Thank You to Jennifer Rohrbach for coordinating the retreat and providing our delicious breakfast. We also all enjoyed a great covered dish lunch of salads and sandwiches. It was a wonderful day.
Thanks,
Debbie B.
