

Devotion, Week of September 22, 2024
Rev. Jeanne Simpson

There was an article in the AJC Monday about civics and the lack of knowledge of U.S. government by many adults today. Example – about 10% of college graduates think “Judge Judy” is on the U.S. Supreme Court! Part of a quiz was included that applicants applying for U.S. citizenship have to take. So I thought I would provide a quiz this week on Bible Basics. See how you do!

1. Name the books of the Pentateuch.
2. Who was called the weeping prophet?
3. What happens to Ishmael?
4. How many synoptic gospels are there, and what are their titles?
5. What does the word “shalom” mean?
6. What act does Paul perform as Saul when we first meet him in the book of Acts?
7. How does God finally answer Job after he demands a response to why he has suffered?
8. In John, who is the first witness to Jesus as the Messiah?
9. What type of government does the Presbyterian Church follow?
10. What is the newest Confession in our Book of Confessions, and what problem was it written to address?

Hope you all make a perfect score!

Jeanne
